

AXEL W. HEINEMANN

Axel Heinemann is an Underwriting Consultant for life, and accident and health at Buxbaum Loggia. Additional responsibilities include settlement strategy, expert testimony and cedent liaison.

Education: University of Innsbruck, Austria – Master of Business Administration

Member, ARIAS Europe

Experience:

All below mentioned experience included frequent activity with numerous and diverse worldwide client contacts.

2001 – 2005                      Senior Vice President – Hannover Life Re

Implementation of, and worldwide responsibility for, customer relationship management of all branches and subsidiaries of Hannover Life Re.

1995 – 2001                      Senior Vice President – Hannover Life Re

Home office responsibility for branches and subsidiaries in North America, Great Britain, South Africa, Australia and Asia regarding underwriting of life and A&H reinsurance.

1990 – 1995                      Departmental Director – Frankona Re

Underwriting responsibility in Property and Casualty for all Spanish-speaking countries worldwide, including the Caribbean. This included the supervision of branches and subsidiaries as well as direct reinsurance acquisition with clients. Creation of a systematic approach for underwriting audits in these countries.

1982 – 1989                      Assistant Vice President – Munich Re

Casualty Manager Munich Re, U.S. branch, New York City. In charge of USA-based casualty business of Munich Re. Underwriting audits with each and every client on a regular basis.

1976 – 1981                      Munich Re

Three years intensive reinsurance training in a department directly reporting to the Board of Management of Munich Re headquarters. Thereafter specializing in casualty reinsurance.