

PATRICIA S. TAYLOR

At Buxbaum Loggia, Patricia Taylor is a Senior Consultant specializing in underwriting and auditing of group and individual healthcare insurance and reinsurance.

Education: California State University, Long Beach, CA – Bachelor of Science
Business Administration/Marketing

Experience:

2014 - 2017 Consultant, Physician Relations - Center for Discovery

Responsibilities included physician and clinician recruitments, developing pathways from adolescent psychiatric medical school residency programs and establishing databases for multiple provider projects.

2012 - 2014 *Director of Health & Wellness, Western Region -
WellPoint/Anthem Health & Wellness Solutions*

Managed a team of 15 members, including RNs, clinical account executives and account managers. Responsibilities included extensive clinical data analysis, claims review and reporting experience. Led a national process improvement initiative program.

2009 - 2012 Account Executive - Anthem Blue Cross

Supervised broker/consultant relationships including resolving claim and underwriting issues. Participated in statewide initiatives, including New Product Development, Process Improvement and Customer Satisfaction task forces.

2005 - 2007 *Physician Recruiter, Network Management -
Brown & Toland Medical Group*

Developed an in-house physician recruitment program and a long-term network strategy. Performed extensive network analyses to forecast future network needs. Developed and managed an RFP process to select a physician search firm partner.

1994 - 1997 Director of Business Development - PacifiCare of California

Managed the Northern California Major Accounts Department. Responsibilities included resolving claim and underwriting issues for accounts including new business, Apple Computer, Stanford University, Mervyn's Corp, Pacific Bell, Bank of America, Bechtel and Wells Fargo Bank.

1984 - 1994 Multiple positions - The Prudential, Western Group Operations

As a Group Representative, managed the Small Group Program for Orange County, including the training and management of 70 Prudential Life Agents, in the sales and underwriting process of 1-50 groups. As Director/National Account Executive, provided senior account management for seven national accounts, including the State of New Mexico.