

KATHRYN M. RAHM

At Buxbaum Loggia, Kathryn M. Rahm is a Claims Consultant for Casualty inspections. Her responsibilities include construction defect claims, worker's compensation and reinsurance allocation.

Education: California State University, Fullerton, CA – Bachelor of Arts-
Communications with emphasis in Advertising
Minor– Art

Experience:

2009 to Present            Technical Consultant
Buxbaum, Loggia & Associates, Inc.

Manage run-off of a top international reinsurer to include commutation negotiation with domestic and foreign insurance companies, claim review, quarterly reporting.

1993 to 2005            Senior Art Director/Production Manager
Dockside Publications, Inc.

Manage and direct art department responsible for the design and production of three monthly magazines and one annual directory. Develop and implement monthly schedules that coordinate editorial, sales, production and printing activities to deliver publications on time and within budget.

Perform editorial layout, ad design, printing impositions and final preparation for output. Responsible for the artistic presentation of each publication. Completely redesigned a newly acquired magazine to broaden the base of advertisers, maximizing company's revenue.